The Diocese & Governors seek the following appointment for December 2024 or sooner

College and Academy Trust Chaplain

Salary: NJC Grade 8, SCP 24-28 (£33,024 - £36,648 pro rata)

Hours: 37 hours per week, term time only (plus INSET days)

The College and Trust Chaplain provides spiritual and pastoral support to students and colleagues of the College and schools within the Trust. This position is seen as crucial in fulfilling the College's mission. The Christian faith and commitment of the College Chaplain will play a central role in bearing witness to this mission and maintaining the distinctive Catholic nature of the College and the wider Trust.

This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced chaplain, youth retreat/ministry worker or teacher to engage with our young people to help them explore their faith. Having a strong faith and commitment as well as being a practising Catholic is essential for this role. The successful candidate will also help develop the Trust strategy and approach to faith by working with other Chaplains, leaders in religious education and other key people within the diocese.

The successful candidate will spend 3 days per week at All Hallows Catholic College supporting the College's faith mission of helping to maintain the strong moral and spiritual ethos of the College. As Chaplain to the College, you will:

- Engage and enjoy working with young people and adults, to draw on your understanding of the Catholic faith and share it with others.
- Be an engaging and enthusiastic communicator and confident talking to students, parents and carers, teachers, and clergy.
- Provide spiritual and pastoral support to students and colleagues of the College.

During the other 2 days per week, you will be responsible for chaplaincy partnership working across all schools within the Trust drawing on your Christian faith to:

- Organise Trust-wide events and celebrations.
- Support chaplaincy groups and encourage joint working between groups.
- Manage a central bank of resources for all schools.
- Lead on Trust-wide initiatives for Catholic Social Teaching
